

I am a concerned citizen. I do not feel that all companies and banks should have unlimited access to my home phone. I am bombarded through the mail, email, and at Malls with advertising and solicitations. If I want information on a product, I can get it for myself. I do not need or want telemarketers to have unlimited access to my homes unless I have expressed a needs or desire for thier information.